- Graphic skills (Photoshop, Illustrator, InDesign)
- Rendering skills (Revit Cloud, SketchUp, Lumion, etc.)
- Good technical and design skills
- Experience with researching and selecting interior finish materials
- Excellent verbal and written English communication skills
- Authorization to work in the United States
- Ability to work in the office 3x per week

It would be a plus if you also have:

- Knowledge of the CBC and accessibility codes
- Experience with selecting and specifying furniture for commercial projects
- Knowledge of commercial furniture dealers and manufacturers
- Civic and/or Education (K-16) project experience

- Experience with programming and/or space planning
- Intermediate or advanced BIM skills
- LEED Accreditation

We might be a good fit for you if:

- You want to work at a design-focused firm on projects that serve a greater good for communities.
- You are interested in working in and around the Bay Area.
- You are looking for a firm that prioritizes a healthy work-life balance.
- You'd like to be part of a fun and hard-working group that enjoys what they do and the people they do it with

Salary range: $65,000 - $75,000 annual salary, commensurate with experience.
